RACE

DEMENTIA

COLLABORATION | RESILIENCE | TEAMWORK

1 IN 3 PEOPLE WILL DIE WITH DEMENTIA

We must find a cure.

Through collaboration, resilience, and teamwork this is possible.

SOMEONE DEVELOPS DEMENTIA EVERY THREE SECONDS

Race Against Dementia (RAD) was founded by Sir Jackie Stewart OBE – winner of three Formula 1 World Championships – after his wife Helen, was diagnosed with frontotemporal dementia.

He knows, like many others how dementia devastates families.

Race Against Dementia identifies, funds and guides pioneering scientists from across the world. We work to achieve better diagnoses, understand risks, develop treatments and find a cure for dementia – faster.

We use a Formula 1 mindset to disrupt current practices – sharing technologies and forging new collaborations across disciplines, institutions and industries.

WHAT IS THE RAD TEAMS PROGRAMME?

INNOVATION

RAD Teams identifies high-calibre leaders; Professors with outstanding ideas and transformative approaches.

TEAMWORK

We will back these leaders to build an elite team of scientists who will identify causes, develop prevention strategies and determine treatments for dementia.

DETAIL

Awards of £750,000 will be made to support the Team for five years. RAD will also train the Team in a Formula 1 style mindset for focus and advancement.
